Deviations From Specifications for Portable Desk Trays

1. The following statement regarding deviations from the specifications for portable desk trays is being forwarded in accordance with our telephone conversation of this afternoon.

a. The thickness of the rubber strip on the top and bottom of the trays can be in excess of the four inches specified for the depth of the box.

b. The 15 $\frac{1}{4}$  inch overall length of the box can be exceeded by 1/8 inch for the latch provided the extra length for the latch is offset approximately 1 $\frac{1}{2}$  inches from the center towards the side with the handle.

2. Mr. Deinlien, of Acme Visible Record Systems, Inc. has been informed that the above changes are acceptable, and will not necessitate rebidding.
